Wilmington, N. C.

Founded 1900

History of the James Walker School of Nursing

On February 5, 1903, a charter was granted James Walker Memorial Hospital to organize a school of nursing, and to maintain it. The first superintendent was Miss Lillie Heller (Mrs. Thomas R. Little). The first class was composed of two students, Miss Florence Hayes (Mrs. Morris Caldwell) and Miss Alberta Robinson. Mrs. Caldwell has the distinction of being the first person to obtain a certificate of registration issued to a graduate nurse trained in a North Carolina School. She was registered in New Hanover County, July 1, 1903. The second class was made up of three students and each year the number has increased. On September 11, 1950 there is a student body of 103 in the school of which 41 are preclinical students.

The first students were required to spend two years in the school. The time spent on duty during the day was twelve hours. One and one-half hours were spent off duty for recreation. The classwork consisted of lectures by the visiting doctors, the superintendent, the director of nursing and the dietitian. Classes were held each night during the winter months. The classes at the present time spend three years in the School of Nursing before graduation. An average of thirteen hundred hours or more is spent in the classroom. The student has an eight hour day including class and ward duty. The faculty is composed of Nursing Instructors, Doctors, and the faculty of Wilmington College for the courses in Science.

James Walker Memorial Hospital School of Nursing is an accredited school and is one of the four largest schools of nursing in North Carolina. The total number of graduates from this school since 1903 is approximately 750. These graduates may be found in the many different branches of nursing in all the states in the union and Alaska.

DEDICATION

MISS LUCY MASTEN, R. N.

As she dedicated her years to teaching and guiding Student Nurses, we dedicate this the 1951 Epitome to Miss Lucy Masten. Under her direction, we have learned to respect and appreciate her firm but fair hand. Her keen and active interest has helped to make our three years here at James Walker, both profitable and enjoyable.

THE NIGHTINGALE PLEDGE

"I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug. I will do all in my power to elevate the standards of my profession. And I will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping, and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my profession. With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care."

OUR PRAYER

Our Father which art in heaven above,
Keep us aware of thy undying love.
Lead us in thy righteous way,
Let us follow thee both night and day.

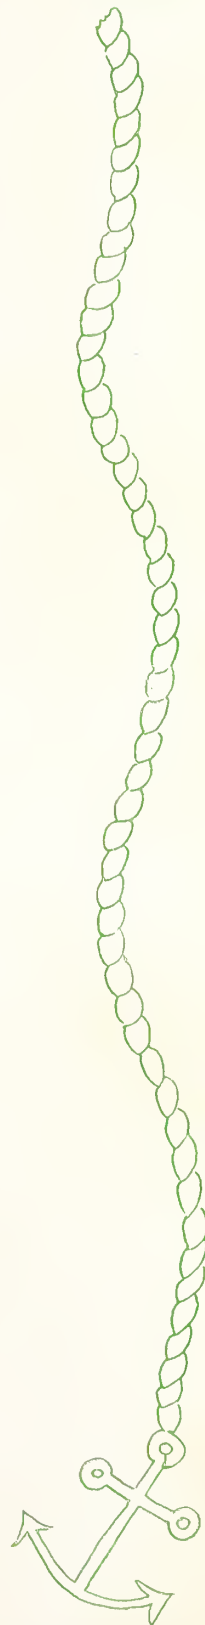

As we arise in the mornings, let us say
A word of thanks for the beautiful day.
Let us greet everyone with a smile,
And make new friends along every mile.

Bless our patients and our every friend,
Care for them, dear Father, until the end.
Return them to a healthy life,
Filled with happiness, and little strife.

May we learn and work, if it be thy will,
Until our dreams of the future we fulfill.
In our nursing career, we pray for success,
For one and all, let us do our best.

—Amen

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of James Walker School of Nursing, in the City of Wilmington and State of North Carolina, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-one, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath and establish this one last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I: To our parents and friends, we bequeath our fondest love and sincere appreciation from their tiniest sacrifices to their inspiring belief in us.

Section II: To our doctors, we leave our gratitude for their willingness to teach and help us in our courses of study. Our hope is that we are the R.N.'s that you have striven to make us.

Section III: To Miss Lucy Masten, we dedicate this volume of the Epitome in order to show a small measure of our appreciation for all she has done for us.

Section IV: To the dietitians, we leave an egg shell recipe so they might add variety to our successors meals.

Section V: To our underclassmen, we leave the hope that they too might some day be graduates of James Walker Memorial School of Nursing.

Section VI: To our advisor, Miss Yount, we say thanks for all the innumerable things she's done for us throughout our training.

ARTICLE II

Section I: I, Marie Moore leave to Beth Maynard a wide collection of notations from Miss Britt, cancelling her late leaves, so that they may serve as a reminder.

Section II: I, Lorraine Galloway, leave my faithfulness to one man to Peggy Van Bavel.

Section III: I, Polly Moore, leave my business like manner to Ann Wayne.

Section IV: I, Jeannine Andrews, will my ability to get along with others to Edith Fergus.

Section V: I, Rachel Bloodworth, leave my love for surgery to Ola Bell Rogers.

Section VI: I, Dorothy Murphy, leave my love for midnight snacks to anybody with an iron-bound constitution and don't think it won't take just that.

Epitome 1951

Section VII: I, Ruby Butler, leave my title as Friendliest to Dorothea Huggins.

Section VIII: I, Glorius Jacobs, leave my date book and many loves to Katie Hatch.

Section IX: I, Arden Blake, leave my infectious grin to Lottie DeBose.

Section X: I, Mary E. Blalock, leave my much noted love for "Singing Rambling Lyrics" to Ike Smith.

Section XI: I, Macie Duncan, leave my desire to get a man who will be on time to Lillie Mae Stanley.

Section XII: I, Doris Schmidt, leave my dancing ability, especially in doing the Charleston to anyone who is as energetic.

Section XIII: I, Virginia Sego, leave my height and nickname "Short-stop" to Mickey Lyon.

Section XIV: I, Mikki Winborne, leave to Betty Brown my independent air hoping it gets you further than it did me.

Section XV: I, Marvaneen Ward, leave my love for Rocky Point and those Long Creek boys to Benjie Swinson. Handle with care!

Section XVI: I, "Winky" Philemon, leave my love for "Bubble Baths" to Elsie Carter.

Section XVII: I, Hermine Doshier, leave my path to the altar to anyone equal to the task.

Section XVIII: I, "Bunny" Holland, leave to Ruby Dudley my ability to live off of love.

Section XIX: I, Wilma Singletary, leave my weakness for pipes, cigars, and poetry to Minnie Frances Kirby.

Section XX: I, Mary Alice Rivenbark, leave my unforgettable hours fishing at Inland Waterway and ambition to study anethesia to Gloria Guthrie.

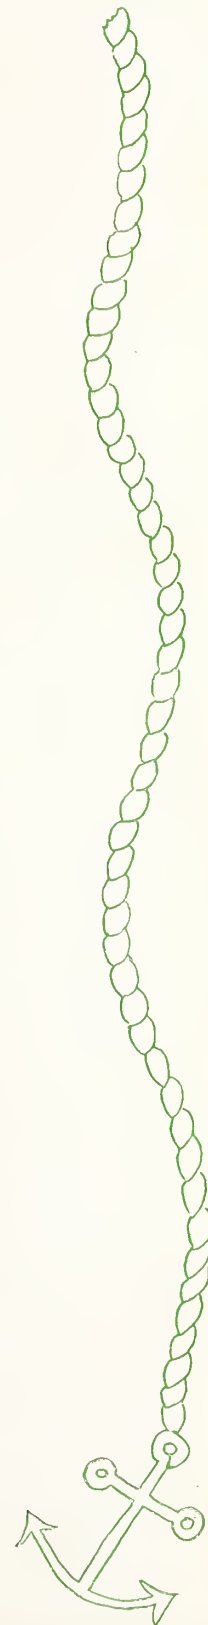

Section XXI: I, Dorothy Trott, leave my peaceful manner with all, to Jean Dickerson.

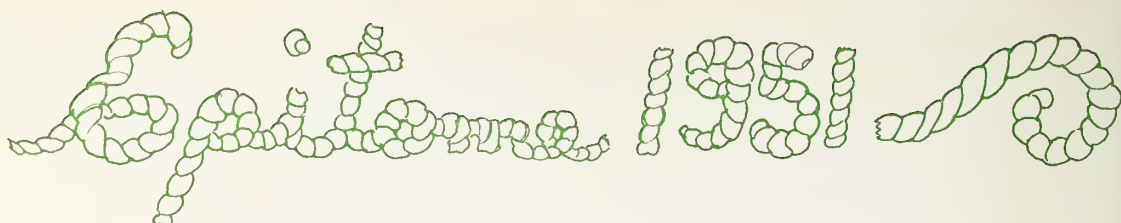

Section XXII: We, Helen Daniels and Grace Fussell after much consideration, feel that we need all of our possessions and make no formal bequeaths.

Signed: Helen Daniels

Grace Fussell

CLASS HISTORY

Does the year 1948 mean anything in the lives of us now graduating from J.W.M.H.? Oh, but how would we forget the utter bewilderment that was felt on that first day here. Many were leaving home and familiar surroundings for the first time, but each one had a keen desire to become a good nurse. We'll never forget those first months of readjustment with everyone giving us the "once over" and whispering "That's some of the new preclinical students" when we passed.

Those first six months were filled with work and studying. We will always feel indebted to Miss Yount and Mrs. Dexter who patiently taught us during our "greenest" days. Without their genuine interest and their encouragement and advice, we feel that more of the class may have dropped out. Of course, we had our fun—sprinkling our sleeping beauties with the clothes sprinkler and making "pie beds." Occasionally (but not often) members of the Class of 1951 were restricted because the rules were temporarily forgotten, or the housemothers slipped up on us!

Soon came the day which we had all long anticipated, our first day on the wards. We deeply appreciate the help our head nurses, supervisors, doctors, and patients gave during the "learning process."

Then came our capping exercise. We realized then what the older nurses meant when they said the meaning of a nurses' cap is indescribable. Our caps meant that we were really a part of our nursing school and were being allowed to accept responsibility for care of patients.

The next year brought our narrow black bands, designating us as juniors. We elected our class officers, motto, flower and colors. Miss Yount was chosen as our class advisor. This year began those memorable days on the obstetrical and pediatric divisions.

Another day to be remembered came in 1950 when we proudly received our senior bands. This brought to mind the fact that we were really accomplishing our goal. Our senior year has been unforgettable. Some of our most outstanding events were the Halloween carnival, fish-fry at Shallotte, Junior-Senior banquet at the Famous Club and the Senior Dance.

Our days at the James Walker Memorial Hospital School of Nursing have been wonderful. We feel that they have really been worthwhile and loads of fun! We have made lasting friendships and accomplished a worthy goal. As we leave our school to take our places in the many realms of the nursing profession, we leave with an undying love for her. We shall always strive to uphold her ideals.

TIME: 1957

PLACE: Home of Mrs. Jimmie Spivey
Market Street
Wilmington, N. C.

Occasion: First visit with Lorraine since graduation.

Lorraine: Come in Polly, it's the first time that I've seen you in ages. We have a lot to talk about, but first tell me about our classmates.

Polly: Let me see—oh yes, Mary Alice Rivenbark is at Charity Hospital in New Orleans studying Anesthesia and Macie Duncan, I mean Edwards is working in the infirmary at Whiteville school. Virginia Sego and Arden Blake Brinson are doing Public Health work here. Jeannine Andrews is head nurse on South Wing I and Joyce Philemon Holder is doing office nursing. Dot Trott is head nurse of the Nursery.

You know that Bunny and Rachel are working in surgery at James Walker—the same happy pair. The only change is that Bunny is now Mrs. Allen Lanier. Hermine Doshier is at a Pacific base hospital where Clyde is stationed near by. Marvaneen Ward and Wilna Singletary are Lieutenants in the Navy, sailing the high seas somewhere.

I was out at the Famous Club last night and who did I see dancing? None other than Dot and Lucky. They are happily married now and she has a time finding a baby sitter everytime she wants to go dancing

Remember the Class President, Marie Moore? She's Director of Nurses at a Greenville hospital and Helen Daniels is 11-7 special on Lower Hall. A favorite floor of hers since she spent so much of time in training there. Mikki Winborne is at the Sampson County Hospital working on Children's Ward.

Guess who is doing Private Duty at J. W. M. H. between caring for a family of four — Mrs. Ruby Butler Carter.

I guess you heard that Enes Chadwick and Grace Fussell are next door neighbors out at Lake Forest. I think they are planning a trip to Florida soon. A. D. and Louis have their time off but you know how hard it is to get time off at James Walker! They are doing General Duty on Upper Hall.

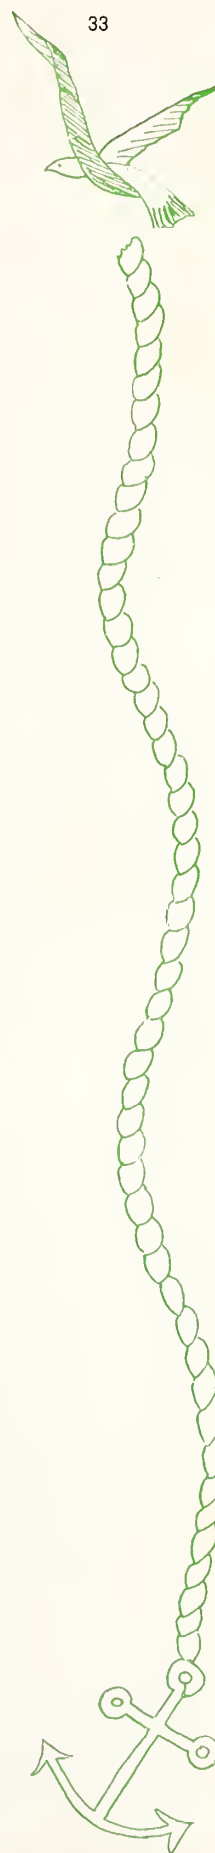

Glorius Jacobs is home on vacation. She is working at the Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville. Mary Ellen Blalock likes the Port City so well that she just couldn't leave, so she's doing 3-11 on Maternity. Dot Murphy Batson is an O. B. patient now with a little Marson, Jr.

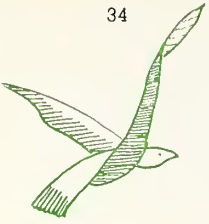

My goodness, it's almost two o'clock and I've got to go on duty at three on Maternity. I hear Jimmie, Jr., crying so I'll say goodbye now. I'll see you around.

TO OUR DOCTORS

We could not close this edition of the Epitome, without pausing to express deep gratitude to our doctors. It is through their help at all times and their constant patience that these three years have been more pleasant.

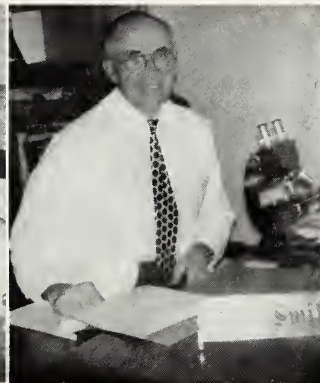

May their devotion to our profession be forever a guidance to us. You, who have so graciously helped us to be better nurses will be in our hearts forever.

The members of the Senior Class join with the Epitome Staff in sincere appreciation to those advertisers and to our doctors who have helped make this annual a reality.

A word of thanks is due to Garey-Mintz Printing Company and the Charlotte Engraving Company for helping us meet our deadline. Acknowledgment goes to our photographers, Mr. Scott, of Adams Studio, and student photographers who have made our pictures.

This is your 1951 yearbook, which has been a bit of a struggle. Consider it a synopsis of your three years at James Walker, and please like it!
